8. Motivational lecture by International Musician Sh. Subhash Chandra Ghosh on 14.12.2021

On 14th December, 2021, a one-day workshop "Sangeet Madhuri" was organised by the cultural committee under the chairmanship of Dr. Veena Rathore, Principal of the college. International musician Sh. Subhash Chandra Ghosh was the resource person of this workshop. He imparted his erudition on music among students. He played many religious and popular melodies on music instruments like flute and sitar. Local musician Sh. Om Prakash Sharma was also present in the workshop and sang many songs in the workshop. In his discourse Sh. Subhash Chandra Ghosh disclosed that God exists in every note of music if played with honesty and sincerity and encouraged them to live their life with pure heart, liveliness with nature and music. His engaging style, quick wit and captivating demeanour keep students on the edge of their seat. He said that life is a very precious gift and each moment of human life carries us an opportunity, to act, to develop and express our virtues. Dr. Veena Rathore Principal of the college also emphasized that life is not a destination but is a journey with lessons, hardships, and special moments. Prof. Reena Chauhan and Dr. Chand conducted stage and Dr. Kiran Bala presented a formal vote of thanks to the resource person and chair. The event ended with national anthem.
