TALK ON CHARACTER BUILDING BY DR. VIVEK NEGI ON NSS FOUNDATION DAY

The National Service Scheme Unit of Sri Guru Gobind Singh Ji Government College, Paonta Sahib, organized an inspirational session on the occasion of National Service Scheme Day on September 24, 2021, in which the Principal of the college, Dr. Veena Rathore, was the chief guest and senior professor Dr. Vivek Negi was the source speaker. First of all the volunteers of NSS sang the lakshya geet of NSS “Uthe samaj ke liye uthe” and Vandana Rathore welcomed all the dignitaries. Avantika student of 3rd year threw light on the history of NSS in India. In the technical session of NSS Day, resource speaker Dr. Vivek Negi interacted with volunteers on character building. In his interaction, Dr Negi called upon the students to highlight the strengths inherent in themselves. Through the poem 'Letter to My Son's Teacher' written by Abraham Lincoln, he inspired volunteers to understand and adopt the harmony of idealism and practical life with their education. Shashibala, Ashik Khan, Lovepreet and Ravinder shared their experiences of working in NSS. Principal Dr. Veena Rathore in her address called upon the volunteers to bring ethics and discipline in their daily lives. Being a volunteer, he inspired to be aware and dedicated to the family, society and the country. Principal Dr. Veena Rathore, Senior Professor Dr. Vivek Negi, Program Officer Prof. Reena Chauhan and Prof. Rinku Agarwal along with all the volunteers were present on the occasion.
