

DEVELOPMENT ADMINISTRATION

PUBA 201

DEVELOPMENT

- What is Development? Development is a process that creates growth, progress, positive change or the addition of physical, economic, environmental, social and demographic components. The purpose of development is a rise in the level and quality of life of the population.

DEVELOPMENT ADMINISTRATION

- Development administration is a dynamic concept which brings about socio- economic and politico-economic changes in society. Aiming towards development, it strives for change, growth, progress and overall development in every sphere of a country.

SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT

- Sustainable development is an organizing principle for meeting human development goals while also sustaining the ability of natural systems to provide the natural resources and ecosystem services on which the economy and society depend.

BUREAUCRACY

- The term bureaucracy refers to both a body of non-elected governing officials and to an administrative policy-making group. Historically, a bureaucracy was a government administration managed by departments staffed with non-elected officials.

NITI AAYOG

- NITI Aayog is developing itself as a state-of-the-art resource centre with the necessary knowledge and skills that will enable it to act with speed, promote research and innovation, provide strategic policy vision for the government, and deal with contingent issues.
