

Contemporary issues & concern in indian administration

PUBA 304

Globalisation

- Globalization is the word used to describe the growing interdependence of the world's economies, cultures, and populations, brought about by cross-border trade in goods and services, technology, and flows of investment, people, and information.

Citizens centric administration

- Citizen-Centric Administration means placing citizens at the centre of modern public administration. This can be achieved by addressing the immediate concerns of citizens i.e. transparency, efficiency, stability and continuity in the governance systems.

Corporate social responsibility

- Corporate social responsibility (also known as CSR) is a term used to describe a company's efforts to improve society in some way. These efforts can range from donating money to nonprofits to implementing environmentally friendly policies in the workplace.

Consumer protection act 1986

- The Consumer Protection Bill, 1986 seeks to provide for better protection of the interests of consumers and for the purpose, to make provision for the establishment of Consumer councils and other authorities for the settlement of consumer disputes and for matter connected therewith.

Environmental administration

- It is a concept of managing human affair in such a way that biological health, diversity and ecological balance will be preserved. • It is also defined as process of carrying out activities which are concerned with protection and enhancement of the quality of the environment.